

“Dog Days of Summer”

Join us for two special theme day events!

Thursday, June 15, 2017
Main Library

3:30 PM: Visit from Local Veterinarian

Come meet local veterinarian, Dr. Flahive, and learn about how veterinarians help take care of dogs and other animals. We'll hear a story and have time to ask Dr. Flahive questions, too! This program is for all ages, and will be outside, weather permitting.

Dr. William Flahive is co-owner of the Cape Veterinary Clinic. He is a Maine native but received his degree from Louisiana State University's School of Veterinary Medicine in 2001.

6:30 PM: Dog Training Presentation

Nick Shrewsbury, of North by East Training, will be giving a talk on his unique approach to dog training, communication, and leadership. Learn the way of a leader in human and canine worlds, fundamentals for resolving problem behavior, body language and more and this unique talk.

Nick has worked with wolves and dogs as a staff member of Mission: Wolf, a manager for Tsali Sled-Racing Kennel, and the founder of North by East Training.

Please do not bring your dog to the talk.
